BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 22 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO provided information on proposed commercial sales of the Airborne Self Protection Jammer (ASPJ) to foreign governments, focusing on: (1) whether the Department of Defense (DOD) violated its foreign military sales (FMS) approval policy when it authorized the sale of ASPJ system software; (2) whether DOD accurately portrayed its decision to provide FMS support to the ASPJ sale; (3) whether DOD adequately addressed U. S. liability and national security concerns in its decision to sell ASPJ software and services; (4) why foreign governments are still interested in purchasing ASPJ systems; and (5) what ASPJ test results DOD provided to prospective foreign buyers. GAO found that: (1) the DOD decision to permit the sale of ASPJ software did not violate its FMS approval policy, since it was based on national security and technical concerns; (2) DOD approval of the sale was not totally consistent with its congressional correspondence on the ASPJ software sale; (3) the proposed sale did not raise any U. S. financial liability or national security concerns, but it may result in contract dispute resolution...
