Controls printed in the preceding pages of this volume, which are but a fifth of what I had between the date of the first, and the latest Control. I do not for one moment mean to assert, that it would not be in the power of a well-educated man, with strong powers of imagination, to write, or even to speak, an Essay equal, if not superior, to any I have recorded. But I doubt the power of any living man, to go on, week after week, three times in each week, for year after year, giving the utterances, covering all countries, all times, and all subjects of interest, and all the time he is speaking to be in a state of unconscious trance, insensible to all bodily feeling, and utterly ignorant, when he returns to his normal state, of all he has said during...
